

AMY ORR-EWING OFFICIAL BIO

Dr. Amy Orr-Ewing is an international author, speaker and theologian who addresses the deep questions of our day with meaningful answers found in the Christian Faith. She is the author of multiple books including 'Where is God in All the Suffering?' (runner up Michael Ramsay Prize, 2023), bestselling 'Why Trust the Bible?' and 'Mary's Voice: Advent Reflections to Contemplate the Coming of Christ.'

Over the last twenty five years, Amy has spoken in 40 countries as a public advocate for the Christian faith including public lectures and open forums on university campuses, as a broadcaster on TV and radio, and addressing Politicians and Parliamentarians in the Speakers Rooms and Chapel at the UK Parliament and staffers on Capitol Hill and the West Wing of The White House. Amy speaks about how theology connects with the deepest questions of life.

In 2023, Amy was awarded the Alphege Medal for Evangelism and Witness by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

In 2023, Amy was awarded the Alphege Medal for Evangelism and Witness by the Archbishop of Canterbury. She previously served as President of the Oxford Centre for Christian Apologetics and is now Honorary Lecturer at the School of Divinity, University of Aberdeen, Distinguished Scholar at Wheaton College Illinois and Theologian in Residence at Saint in Hackney, London.

For more info visit www.amyorr-ewing.com